Associate and Affiliate memberships are an individual membership. If the company is paying for the Associate or Affiliate membership dues rather than the individual, the company may change the name of the member of record by sending written notice to HBAA. If the Associate/Affiliate-member of record listed on this application is personally paying the membership dues, and if that person leaves the company listed. That person may request HBAA Board of Directors' approval to transfer his/her membership to different company name.

A remittance of $450.00 representing my annual membership dues in the affiliated Associations accompanies this application. I understand that my dues payment will also cover annual membership in the National Association of Home Builders and the Home Builders Association of South Carolina. I agree to abide by the Constitution and By-laws of all three (3) Associations to which this membership application is directed.

Dues payments to the Home Builders Association of Anderson are not deductible contributions for federal income tax purposes. However, dues payments may be deductible as ordinary and necessary business expense, subject to exclusion for lobbying activity. Because a portion of your dues is used for lobbying by NAHB, in the amount of $18.00 and the Home Builders Association of SC in the amount of $15.00, or a total of $33.00 is not deductible for income tax purposes.
